Cherry Blossoms in the Dark
In February 1936, the snow in the imperial capital was stained with blood.
As people lose track of themselves among the ruins of war that symbolize this country,
so do falling flowers float, even after changing form—
float forever without a place to belong—
In an insanely tragic,
and beautiful way.

Cherry Blossoms in the Dark

SINCE THIS YEAR HAS BEEN COLD EVEN AFTER THE NEW YEAR PASSED, THE FLOWERS HAVE NOT BLOOMED AS WELL.
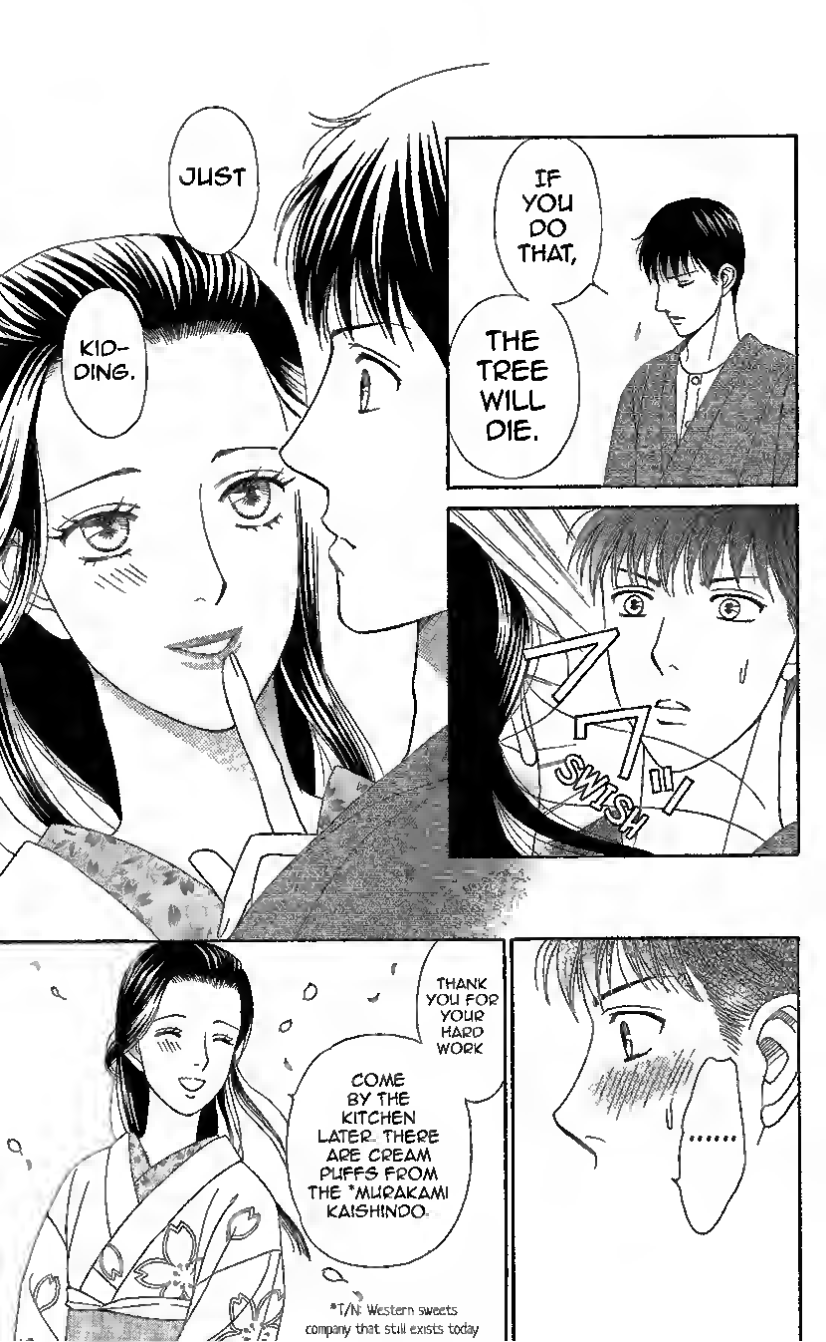
YES, MILADY.
THEY BLOOMED AGAIN THIS YEAR.
I WONDER IF BEAUTIFUL FLOWERS WILL BLOOM IF YOU BURY A FRESH CORPSE UNDER-NEATH ITS ROOTS.



JUST KIDDING.
IF YOU DO THAT,
THE TREE WILL DIE.

Even butlers and doctors are rarely allowed entry to his room.
The viscount vents the frustrations of his disability onto his wife.
She cannot defy him as she was practically sold off to him when her family had fallen from nobility.

A pitiful lady indeed.
